

Montana Land Title Association Foundation National Register Heritage Property Fund

In 2002, the Montana Land Title Association (MLTA) Foundation established the National Register Heritage Property Fund at the Montana Historical Society to support the State Historic Preservation Office in the preparation of nominations of historically significant Montana properties for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. Since 2002, the MLTA Foundation has contributed $55,000 to this effort.

Seventeen properties have been listed in the National Register with full or partial support of the MLTA Foundation National Register Heritage Property Fund. Recently listed properties include: the Wold Barn in Melrose (listed January 8, 2009), the Eagle Butte School in Choteau County (listed January 28, 2009) and the Moon-Randolf Ranch outside Missoula (listed March 1, 2010).

Property nominations currently being prepared with support of the MLTA Foundation National Register Heritage Property Fund are: the Reed's Fort Post Office in Lewistown scheduled to be presented to the State Preservation Review Board in May, 2010.
